

RED BARN SERIES

Judie Yamamoto

The informal lecture series "Behind the Notes", otherwise known as "Sam in the Barn", had its tenth year in 2015, and it was the most successful year yet. A total of 211 people attended, resulting in a full house for each of the three sessions and donations that totaled almost $400. In addition to the "regular" attendees, a number of new faces appeared during each session. Wayne Wildman, who gave the third presentation, did a fabulous job and was as well-received as Samantha has been. But we will need a new nickname for the series. "Sam and Wayne in the Barn" just doesn't hum.
